Eligibility. All patrons outlined in Chapter 2, paragraph 2, are authorized to use the Auto Hobby Skills Center. Positive identification and vehicle registration must be shown at the time of sign in. The patron may work on a vehicle registered in his/her name as well as a vehicle registered to a family member in the immediate household i.e. spouse or child. Active Duty patrons, with the exception of DoD civilians, may use the Auto Hobby Skills Center for short-term repairs to a vehicle belonging to a friend or relative outside the immediate household. However, the friend or relative must present a valid vehicle registration and accompany the military patron. Patrons are restricted from using the Auto Hobby Skills

Center for private gain or from accepting compensation to fix other patrons' cars. All transactions are handled through the Auto Hobby Skills Center cash register.

Family members under the age of 12 will not be permitted in the Auto Hobby Skills Center unless they remain in the lounge with a parent or guardian. Family members 12 through 16 years of age are permitted in the Auto Hobby Skills Center provided an adult accompanies them. Youth who engage in "horseplay" or otherwise interfere with the operation of the facility shall be directed to leave the Auto Hobby Skills Center.
