

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Scholarships are alphabetized and categorized by type e.g. law students, STEM majors, military only, military family member, ethnicity, women only, graduate students, and other categories
- Some Scholarship opportunities may be listed more than once to assist with the easy-find option e.g. “A scholarship for Marines may also be listed under scholarships for STEM majors”
- Unless the scholarship is listed under Marines / Service Members / Veterans Only assume it is open to all students
- Some states like Texas and California have veteran-specific or state resident grants and scholarships – check with your local Student Veterans of America (SVA) Chapter at <https://studentveterans.org/>
- For additional scholarships, use The College Board’s website <https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/pay-for-college/grants-scholarships> - the Marine Corps Leadership Scholar Program (LSP) partners with The College Board, and we know these scholarships are vetted to prevent fraud

Please let the LSP Program Manager know if any of the scholarship sponsors ask you for money or if the entity is harassing you or a family member.

Scholarship Opportunities for Hispanic Students

Gates Millennium Scholars

<http://www.gmsp.org/>

Candidates who participate in the undergraduate scholarship opportunity can seek graduate funding in specific areas of study.

For: African American, American Indian/Alaska Native*, Asian Pacific Islander American**, and Hispanic American

- The Gates Millennium Scholars (GMS) Program, funded by a grant from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, was established in 1999 to provide outstanding African American, American Indian/Alaska Native*, Asian Pacific Islander American**, and Hispanic American students with an opportunity to complete an undergraduate college education in any discipline area of interest. Continuing Gates Millennium Scholars may request funding for a graduate degree program in one of the following discipline areas: computer science, education, engineering, library science, mathematics, public health or science.
- Candidates must be legal residents of the U.S. with cumulative high-school GPA of at least 3.3. Additionally, diverse applicants must be entering full-time programs at accredited colleges or universities. Disadvantaged students must show economic hardship to warrant consideration for the awards, and must also exhibit leadership skills through participation in extracurricular activities. Federal Pell Grant eligibility is also a prerequisite.
- Each applicant must be nominated for a Gates Scholarship, by a teacher or administrator who is familiar with the student's academic record. A recommendation which attests to the student's extracurricular participation and exemplary leadership qualities is also required.
- In addition to monetary aid, Gates Scholars are nurtured with academic support during school, as well as access to professional development opportunities through millennium Foundation leadership programs.
- Students who complete an undergraduate degree program may request additional scholarship funding for graduate studies in the specific areas of education, engineering, library science, mathematics, public health and computer science.

Scholarships Opportunities for Virginia Residents

Lee - Jackson Foundation
<http://www.lee-jackson.org/>

This is an essay based scholarship focused on history scholars

- Supports college students, with scholarships and grants. Since 1953, the Foundation hosts an annual essay competitions to review outstanding essays from high school students that demonstrate an appreciation for the character and virtues of Generals Robert E Lee and Thomas J “Stonewall” Jackson. Essays are judged with an emphasis on three primary features:
  - Accuracy of historical depictions
  - Research depth and quality
  - Clarity of ideas and written expression
- Eighteen annual scholarships are disbursed to juniors and seniors from the eight High School regions in the state. Each region awards one $2000 scholarship, and one $1000 scholarship, for a total of sixteen awards. An additional pair of scholarships is reserved for private school students and those coming from home-schooled situations; one valued at $2000 and the other $1000. The most outstanding essay submitted garners the top prize, which includes an additional $8000 worth of scholarship funding for the grand prize winner. The top annually earner, then, receives a total of $10,000 toward college expenses.
- Virginia residents attending accredited four-year colleges and universities within the state are invited to compete for Lee-Jackson Foundation Scholarships.
